THE COLLECT

Almighty God,
whose Son revealed in signs and miracles
the wonder of your saving presence:
renew your people with your heavenly grace,
and in all our weakness
sustain us by your mighty power;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

MEETING - POST CHRISTMAS TREE FESTIVAL DEBRIEF

Jane Langley writes:

A quick reminder there is to be a meeting to discuss the Christmas Tree Festival - to discuss what went well and what could be done in future.

Please join us at the Ship Inn on Tuesday the 24th of January at 7pm

If you can help in any way, we want to hear from you. If you have any ideas for future festivals, come and talk to us.

This is an informal, social meeting so please come and have a chat.

LAST SUNDAY AT STHILDEBURGH'S

Left: Our Voyagers explain to Revd Richard how the Holy Spirit in the form of a dove descended on Jesus as he was baptised by John the Baptist.

WIRRAL ORCHESTRA

Neil Jackson writes:

Hello,

Happy New Year. The Wirral Orchestra have their next concert on Saturday 28th January 7.30pm at St Hildeburgh's church, Stanley Road, Hoylake. We will be celebrating new year with a trip to Vienna with Strauss' Blue Danube Waltz. We shall also be waltzing with Shostakovich with music from his Jazz Suite, folk dancing with Dvorak in his Slavonic Dances and for those with a preference for Latin rather than ballroom there shall be tangos by Albeniz and Leroy Anderson. As well as dancing the new year in we shall have a winter wonderland with Prokofiev's Troika and Tchaikovsky's Nutcracker Suite. The tickets are already on sale from:

- Maccombs Pet shop in Hoylake, 18 Market Street
- The Tee Room, West Kirby, 172 Banks Road
- Pinks, Bebington, The Village
- They are also on sale from the Charity office at Clatterbridge in the cancer unit
- Or you can email me (nejvla@hotmail.com) and request to be added to the list of places which can be paid for on the night. All tickets are £8 and the concert is in aid of the Cancer Unit at Clatterbridge.

Please do spread the word about our concert as your word of mouth is the best advertising. I have included a copy of the poster.

Thank you to those who attended the Christmas concert as for December and our last outdoor concert in September we have managed to send over £2000 to Clatterbridge. We look forward to seeing you on the 28th January
